Speaker Series - SC104 at 12 Noon

Monday, February 3rd - "Working for the State of New Jersey"

Dalia Seidl - Jury Manager, Mercer County, State of NJ Judiciary

Ms. Seidl has worked for the State of NJ for over 17 years. Starting in the Automated Trial Courts Systems Unit, she worked her way up to the position of Jury Manager while also serving as the Title 2 ADA Coordinator for all court users which include plaintiffs, defendants, jurors or attorneys. Ms. Seidl was the first Jury Manager in NJ to have a blind juror on a Grand Jury Panel and made the necessary accommodations for jurist. Another significant accomplishment was she oversaw the first Grand Jury homicide case virtually in New Jersey; an homage to her beginnings in Information Technology.

Tuesday, February 4th - "Veg-Out Mercer"

Mary Ann Cavallaro, Nurse & Author

Learn the benefits of plant based nutrition with Mary Ann Cavallaro ~ Nurse, Author and Animal Lover. Enjoy a vegan lunch and a copy of Mary Ann's latest book.

Monday, March 3rd - "Have Bacon, Will Travel" (Women in Business)

Sondra Duckett - Owner of "Have Bacon, Will Travel"

Known as "The Mistress of Bacon", Ms. Duckett hails from Mississippi where her family encouraged her to perfect her recipes of pork belly. In business for a year and a half, she has started selling her flavorful bacon creations of PB&J with peanut sprinkles, Korean BBQ with ginger dressing and the BLT at different festivals in the tri-state area including the Sunflower Festival at Holland Farms and the Asbury Fest in Asbury Park, NJ. She also tries out seasonal flavors with the most recent creation of bacon, pumpkin, pumpkin seeds and cranberry. Most recently, she was on the Fox TV show, Good Night New York.
